

Casual Floor Logistics Operative

Runway Visitor Park (located at Manchester Airport)

We are currently looking for a Casual Logistics Operative to work at the Runway Visitor Park.

Runway Visitor Park is one of the North West's most popular outdoor attractions. Providing the perfect location for families and enthusiasts to watch the take-off and landing of planes at Manchester Airport, the venue also includes a playground, café, aviation shop and conference facilities.

The café and conference facilities are managed by Manchester Central.

The Role

Salary - £12.60 per hour / Hours – dependent on business levels / Working pattern – Monday to Sunday as required

Reporting directly to the Catering Manager, this role is working on a casual basis.

Your duties and responsibilities will include but are not limited to:

- Setting up rooms for a variety of event types from small meetings to gala dinners in line with company standards and as per client specifications.
- Acting as a point of contact for Catering Manager and RVP Assistant Manager during a build or live event, responding to requests and escalating potential problems where necessary.

The ideal candidate will have:

- Event industry experience and knowledge of event requirements.
- Prior logistics experience.
- The ability to plan, prioritise and multi-task
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.

You must:

- Be self-motivated but with the ability to work as part of a team.
- Enjoy working in a fast-paced environment.
- Have a passion for delivering excellent levels of customer service.
